

PROVIDER PROFILES

Anastasia L. Gentles, M.D. FAAP

Dr. Anastasia L. Gentles is the CEO, medical director and co-founder of NightLight Pediatric Urgent Care. She is a graduate of the University of California, San Diego School of Medicine and completed her residency in Pediatrics at the Children's Hospital of Oakland in Oakland, CA in June of 2000. She moved to Texas in 2001. Her work experience includes Adolescent medicine, Primary care and Emergency medicine. When not at NightLight she enjoys reading, eating and running.

Bill Chu, M.D. FAAP

Dr. Bill Chu has been a board certified pediatrician since 2004. He grew up in Houston and attended college at Houston Baptist University. He went to medical school at the University of Texas Medical School at Houston and then completed his residency training in the pediatrics at the UCLA Mattel Children's Hospital in Los Angeles, California. He has work experience in a neonatal ICU as well as a private practice. Doctor Bill has been working at Nightlight Pediatric Urgent Care since September 2008.

Rajitha Julapalli, M.D.

Dr. Rajitha Julapalli attended Baylor College of Medicine for medical school and for residency and is a Texas licensed pediatrician. She has worked in a variety of settings including community clinics, Texas Childrens Hospital and Ben Taub General Hospital. She particularly enjoys emergency/acute care medicine because of the diversity of patients, and helping the families sleep better at night. Away from work, she enjoys spending time with her family, cake decorating, scrapbooking, and reading.

Molly Boyce Moeller, M.D.

Dr. Molly Boyce Moeller graduated from Duke University School of Medicine and then completed residency at Baylor College of Medicine. Her professional interests include care of the newborn, management of childhood obesity, and diagnosis and treatment of pediatric skin problems. When not at work, she and her husband, a physician at MD Anderson Cancer Center, are busy at home caring for a 3 year old son, 1 year old daughter, and 2 constantly hungry beagles.

Suyearn Hong Yu, M.D.

Suyearn Hong Yu attended Brown University for her undergraduate degree and Baylor College of Medicine for medical school and residency. She gained valuable pediatric experience while training at Texas Children's Hospital and Ben Taub General Hospital. She lives in Houston with her husband and son.

Dione Davis, PNP

Dione Davis is a pediatric nurse practitioner (PNP). Dione attended Johns Hopkins University in Baltimore for her nurse practitioner training. She holds a masters degree and has been practicing as a PNP in Texas for over 12 years. The majority of those years have been in pediatric urgent care. She is nationally certified by the Pediatric Nurse Certification Board. She lives in Houston with her husband, 2 year old son and their white German Sheppard